Application for a place at Primary school September 2017

For further information on school admissions and nearest school search, please go to: www.iwight.com/schooladmissions where you can also apply for a school place online.

Please list a maximum of three primary schools you wish your child to attend in order. Failure to include your nearest school may result in your child being allocated a school not of your preference or some distance from your home.

Complete this form or apply online and include any church aided school(s) in your preferences. This form must be returned to School Admissions and Transport, County Hall, Newport, Isle of Wight, PO30 1UD by midnight on 15 January 2017.

If you are applying for a place at a church aided primary school you must also contact the aided primary school(s) to obtain their supplementary information form. The supplementary form together with any supporting evidence must be returned to the school(s) by the time stated in their policies by 15 January 2017.

Failure to meet this deadline will result in your application being treated as late, and your preferences will not be considered until after those that were received on time.

If you make an application online do not return this form to school admissions
