Forest Forge presents Battle Lines

Box office: 01983 822490

Sea Street Newport Harbour Isle of Wight PO30 5BD

AFTERNOON: Wed 2nd Apr 2pm Doors 1pm EVENING: Wed 2nd Apr: 6pm Doors 4pm

£10/£9* adv / £12 on the door

Looking at the regions experiences of war, 'Battle Lines' is a trilogy of short plays exploring the way three wars have shaped the lives of generations. Showing at Quay Arts is:

First World War: 'The Call Up'

A century ago a small village community sees a generation of young men leave to fight for King and Country. When the men are gone what happens to those that remain? Forest Forge shines a light on the personal stories that didn't make it into the history books.

Modern Warfare: 'In Our Name'

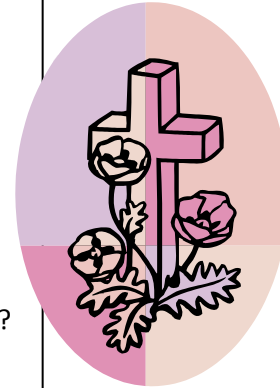

The military 'community' is a modern phenomenon, often living on the outskirts of a town or city, or absorbed into a society that struggles to understand them. This play looks at how modern warfare challenges both those that fight and the people they are fighting for.

Written by: David Haworth - Directed by: Kirstie Davis, Lucy Phillips and David Haworth

Music by: Rebecca Applina.

ACTIVITIES GUIDE

We do not recommend any club or activity group, we simply offer information on what we know is available and therefore take no responsibility for the information provided. Please contact the activity provider directly for further information on a particular event.

Please ensure that when enquiring about any activity you ask the following questions:

Do the staff/volunteers have a Disclosure and Barring Service check (was CRB)?

How will they keep your child safe and well?

Do they have a safeguarding policy in place?

Do they have a late collection policy, e.g. ensuring the group/club know who the person will be who picks up your child at the end of the day, and what to do if no one arrives

Don't be afraid to ask questions and if you're not entirely happy with their response seek another activity for your child.
